

2025 SUMMER COURSES

HIGHLANDS BIOLOGICAL STATION

HIGHLANDS, NC

CELEBRATING OUR
98TH SEASON!

1 WEEK COURSES (2 CREDIT HOURS)

New!* Identification of Wood Warblers by Sight and Sound

Dr. Paul M. McKenzie, U.S. Fish & Wildlife Service (emeritus)

5 - 10 May

Identification of Southern Appalachian Grasses

Dr. Paul M. McKenzie, U.S. Fish & Wildlife Service (emeritus)

12 - 17 May

New!* Salamander Conservation

Dr. Bill Peterman, Ohio State University

26 - 31 May

Biology and Identification of Sedges

Dr. Joey Shaw, UT-Chattanooga

2 - 7 June

Biology and Identification of Ferns

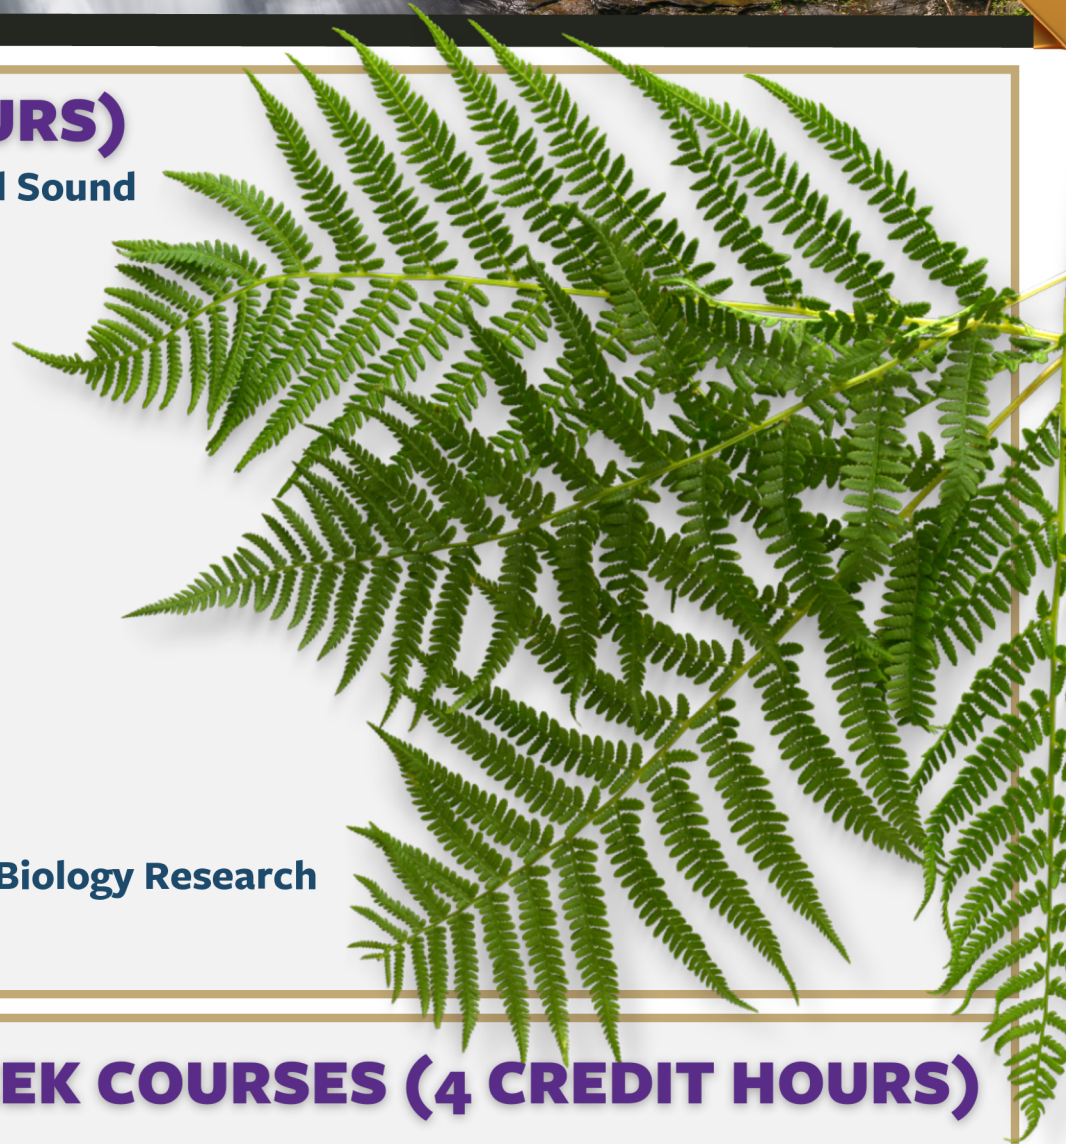

Dr. Joey Shaw, UT-Chattanooga

7 - 12 July

Brightfield and Fluorescence Microscopies for Field Biology Research

Dr. Robert Youker, Western Carolina University

28 July - 1 August

2 WEEK COURSES (4 CREDIT HOURS)

Southern Appalachian Mayflies, Stoneflies, and Caddisflies

Dr. John Morse, Clemson University and Dr. Kelly Murray-Stoker, Oxford College of Emory University

Session 1: 9 - 21 June

Session 2: 23 June - 5 July

Plant Ecophysiology

Dr. Howie Neufeld, Appalachian State University and Dr. Nicole Hughes, Highpoint University

16 - 25 June

Forest Ecosystems of the Southern Appalachians

Dr. Stephanie Jeffries, North Carolina State University, Dr. Alan Weakley, UNC Chapel Hill, and Dr. Julie Tuttle, Ecologist & Biogeographer

7 - 18 July

Conservation Biology

Dr. Chris Mowry, Berry College

21 July - 2 August

SPECIAL OFFERING: 2 WEEK TRAVEL COURSE (4 CREDIT HOURS)

New!* Island Evolution & Conservation:

Galápagos Islands Field Course at Charles Darwin Research Station

12 - 25 July

Dr. Jim Costa and Dr. Kathy Mathews, Highlands Biological Station & Western Carolina University

A limited number of partial course scholarships are available for HBS courses — see website for details and registration form.

SCAN ME